

3 MONTHS TO GO!!!

CARLTON CARNIVAL!!!

Come join us on 23 June 2018 to celebrate!

1976 -273 primary students
enrolled and enrolments
continued to climb.

1976-1990

6 principals took charge of
Carlton during this time:

1976 – Miss Beverley Prigg

1978 – Mr Bill Whalley

1981 – Mr Harold Doig

1982 – Mr Robert Smith

1983 – Mr Ian McCowan

1986 – Mr John Hegarty

1977 P & C donation
cards re- introduced to raise funds.

Canteen was renovated.

Windows in school
replaced with aluminium.

The cottages in Cameron Street were purchased by Department of Education.

There were 3
kindergarten classes
with 36, 37 and 36
children in them.

The wooden climbing
equipment was installed.

1989 A school cookbook
was published.

6 computers were now
in the school
Year 3 and Year 6 sat the Basic Skills Test
The end of Byrnes St at Percival St was closed

1985 Oval was used by community after school
and on weekends.

1976 Introduction of Maths and reading text books was discussed.
Fencing of the vacant
block commenced.

1981 The new four term
years commenced.
The school was 60%
ethnic with a large Macedonian and Greek population.
New sports uniform was introduced

1978 Parking
problems
around the school.
Canteen
helpers
needed.
Canteen
became a sub committee of the P & C.

1988 Carlton celebrated Australia's bicentennial with a great parade and a ceremony where two native Australian trees were planted beside the flagpole. Mr Charles Williams, the oldest ex-student (pictured - who attended between 1920-1934) was given the honour of planting a tree.

1979 Some demountable classrooms arrived for the school.
Class size reduced to 31.
180 trees are now planted around the new grass area.
Summer uniform is to be changed.

1980 Ceiling fans
were installed in classrooms.
Mr Ron Rathbone,
ex student and
Mayor of Rockdale is the new Patron of the School.
A demonstration of the use of a computer was held.